ABOUT ME

Born with markers and a glue stick in hand, I'm happiest when given the opportunity to use my creativity to solve problems. An entrepreneur at heart, brainstorming is what keeps me up at night. My resourcefulness and keen eye for good design allow me to find the most cost effective ways to get the look you want, within your budget. Throughout the years, I have built a great network of collaborators I can count on to help along and take your project to the next level.
